Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit of Disposal Activities.

On March 7, 2016 the Board of Directors of Sarepta Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) approved a consolidation plan to wind down and close the Corvallis, Oregon offices of the Company with the goal of locating all of the Company’s operations in Massachusetts (the “Consolidation Plan”). The Consolidation Plan is part of a plan to increase the Company’s operational efficiency. Certain employees in the Corvallis office will be offered relocation packages for their relocation to Massachusetts, however, the number of positions that will be eliminated in connection with the Consolidation Plan represents approximately 17% of the Company’s workforce. These relocations and terminations are planned to occur in four waves in May, October, November and December of this year. The Company expects that the Consolidation Plan will be completed by December 30, 2016. The Company currently estimates it will incur total charges of between approximately $1.7 million and $2.4 million, consisting primarily of cash expenses for severance and relocation benefits. In addition to such expenses, there is a non-cancelable lease relating to the Company’s laboratory and office space in Corvallis that expires in December 2020. Following the expected completion date of the Consolidation Plan, the Company expects to be obligated to make approximately $4.3 million of cash lease payments through the expiration of the lease. Although the Company is exploring its options with respect to the remaining term of the lease or identifying a sub-lessee, there can be no guarantee that we will recoup or reduce the non-cancelable future lease payments. The Company may also incur other material costs or charges not currently contemplated due to events that may occur as a result of, or associated with, the Consolidation Plan.

Sarepta Therapeutics Announces Long Term Plan to Consolidate Facilities within Massachusetts

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(BUSINESS WIRE)—March 8, 2016—Sarepta Therapeutics, Inc. (NASDAQ:SRPT), a developer of innovative RNA-targeted therapeutics, today announced a long term plan to move all of the Company’s operations to Massachusetts, as part of a strategic plan to increase operational efficiency.

Over the course of the year, the Company plans to close their facility in Corvallis, Oregon, which primarily focused on early-stage research and research manufacturing. As part of the consolidation, research activities and some employees will transition to Sarepta facilities in Andover and Cambridge, Massachusetts.

“For a biotechnology company of our size and stage of development, it is operationally important to centralize our facilities and focus our efforts on the R&D, manufacturing, and pre-commercialization of eteplirsen,” said Edward Kaye, Sarepta’s interim chief executive officer and chief medical officer. “To that end, we will consolidate operations to Massachusetts over the coming year to optimize the efficiency of our R&D and manufacturing teams.”

The consolidation efforts are planned to occur in four waves – in May, October, November, and December of this year – with an estimated completion date of December 30, 2016.

Sarepta Therapeutics has not received formal notification of a rescheduled date for the Peripheral and Central Nervous System Advisory Committee Meeting to review eteplirsen, but anticipates that it will be scheduled prior to the May 26, 2016 PDUFA date.
